

Wilson Middle School Behavior Rubric 2012-2013

*Note: Any behavior that is outrageous, overly disrespectful, or dangerous, or not specifically stated in the rubric, is subject to administrator review, immediate office referral, and assignment of consequences.

Please note: All rules apply on buses, at bus stops, and on school grounds.

If you have a concern that you have been given a slip in error, please complete the slip anyway and explain your thoughts respectfully. Make arrangements to discuss this with the teacher privately at an appropriate time and place. The final decision is made by the teacher.

We strive to make discipline a private learning experience and opportunity for growth. All students are asked in conversation with adults (teachers, administrators, or guidance staff) to reflect - in writing and in conversation- on behaviors that result in consequences.

Loss of privilege= special events during and after school.

Teacher consequence choice= written letter or assignment, lunch detention, before/after-school detention, or community service

Lunch detention removes students from social lunches; students eat with teachers or administrators supervising.

After-school detentions are 50 minutes in length during which time students are expected to complete work and speak/reflect with supervising adults relative to behavior.
