Respect, Responsibility, and Results are our Core Values!

Positive Behavior Rubric 2012-2013

Wilson Middle School
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Possible Results</th>
<th>Possible Recognitions</th>
<th>Possible Awards</th>
<th>Your Behavior</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Examples</td>
<td>Positive Behavior Rubric 2012-2013</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Examples of Respect
  - Remember, these are just a few examples. There are many more ways in which to demonstrate respect in our school.
  - Patiently help a classmate understand a difficult concept.
  - Who has classroom management difficulties may benefit from a peer helping them.
  - Leadership role in the classroom or school.
  - Classroom may feel more positive and inclusive.
  - Everyone learns more and feels respected.
  - You may win a snack or lunch.
  - You may be chosen as Student of the Month or Wildcat of the Month.
  - Students or staff may feel good about helping others.
  - You may be chosen as Citizen of the Month or Wildcat of the Month which means:
    - Name read during morning announcements.
    - Name put on school website.
    - Name posted in main hallway or gym.
    - You may win a snack or lunch outside with friends.
  - Leadership role in the classroom or school.

- Examples of Patience
  - Patiently help a classmate understand a difficult concept.
  - Who has classroom management difficulties may benefit from a peer helping them.

- Examples of Cooperation
  - Work together to help someone complete a good task.
  - Student feels good that someone cared enough to help out.
  - YOU feel good about it (and you learn more when you help others)!
  - People don't have to worry about unkind words being said about them or others.
  - Someone may help you when you need it!
  - Everyone learns more and feels respected.
  - Classmates may want to work/sit with you more often because they know you will be kind/helpful.
  - Leadership role in the classroom or school.
  - You may be chosen as Citizen of the Month or Wildcat of the Month which means:
    - Name read during morning announcements.
    - Name put on school website.
    - Name posted in main hallway or gym.
    - You may win a snack or lunch outside with friends.
  - Leadership role in the classroom or school.
Examples of Responsibility

Remember, these are just a few examples. There are many more ways in which to demonstrate responsibility in our school.

- Prepared for class with all materials ready (includes changing for PE)
- In seat, on time, quietly ready to learn
- You actively and responsibly participate in all class lessons and activities
- You are ready to learn immediately; no wasted time or missed information
- Everyone can hear your teacher and learn
- You support classmates
- You are grateful
- Thank you
- You’re prepared for class
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other core grades)
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- You complete every homework assignment
- You complete your classwork every day
- You may be asked to join the Principal’s Advisory Group
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Effort

Remember, these are just a few examples. There are many more ways in which to demonstrate effort in our school.

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.

Examples of Effort

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.

Examples of Effort

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.

Examples of Effort

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.

Examples of Effort

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.

Examples of Effort

- You complete your homework every day
- You complete your classwork every class
- You ask for help when you need it
- You stay after school for help preparing for a test re-take
- You learn more!
- Your grades improve!
- You are proud of your efforts!
- Your family is proud of your efforts!
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll (all grades are B- or better)
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll (all grades are A- or better)
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll (at least one core grade improved while maintaining other grades)
- Names are printed in the paper.
- Letters go home to parents/caregivers
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date
- Class privileges for students who are up-to-date (activity choice, movies, etc.)
- Choice of activity for individuals or full class

Examples of Responsibility

- Your teacher may thank you individually or the whole class if everyone demonstrates responsibility
- You may be nominated for Student Council
- You may be elected to Student Council from your homeroom
- You may be listed on the Honor Roll
- You may be listed on the High Honors Roll
- You may be listed on the Improvement Honor Roll
- Names are printed in the paper.